

Teen Connections Book Group!

For teens in grades 7-12 and the adults in their lives.

What is it?

Teen Connections is a multigenerational book group for teens and the adults in their lives.

Why try it?

Because it's fun to read books together!

But aside from that, participating in a multigenerational group gives teens and adults a chance to discuss challenging topics together. We also explore the different and new perspectives people of different age groups have about the same book.

When does it meet?

We meet one Thursday a month from 6:45pm-7:45pm, outside or virtually.

Our next meeting will take place on Thursday, September 30th to discuss Cousins by Karen McManus.

What kinds of books do you read?

We read a mix of teen and adult fiction and nonfiction, and we are always open to suggestions from our members!

Books we have read in the past include:

- And Then There Were None by Agatha Christie
- This is My America by Kimberly Johnson
- The Moment of Lift by Melinda Gates
- A Tree Grows in Brooklyn by Betty Smith
- Stepsister by Jennifer Donnelly
- On the Edge of Gone by Corinne Duyvis
- In My Hands: Memoirs of a Holocaust Rescuer by Irene Opdyke
